HOMEBREWED

COMICS

Founded by comic creators Christopher Sahloff and Drew D. Lenhart in January 2025, Homebrewed Comics is the true definition of indie comics on the brink of something special. A few months later, Dan Price joined Chris and Drew as the third man in March 2025 and Dennis Valencia jumped in with both feet shortly after, rounding out this team. We strive to bring exciting and exceptional creator-owned stories to store shelves that are unique but mainstream enough to attract new audiences. Our titles run the gamut as our imaginations are always running wild!

From a super team whose fate is controlled by the roll of the dice (CRIT), a sci-fi space captain on the run from his own bad decisions (Caspian Porter), a super powered hero and his dog fighting kaiju across the galaxy (The Celestial Knight), or a karate-wielding bigfoot hellbent on revenge (BIGFOOT KNOWS KARATE), Homebrewed Comics is brewing up some exciting tales you won't want to miss!

CHRIS SAHLOFF

PRESIDENT & PUBLISHER
CREATOR, CRIT
@HOMEBREWEDCOMICS

From the stage to the sketchpad, Christopher Michael Sahloff is a creator who thrives on energy, storytelling, and world-building. A former guitarist for My Hero Is Me (Tragic Hero Records/Sony Red), he enjoys high-impact, immersive experiences—whether through music, comics, or tabletop adventures.

As the creator, writer, artist, and letterer of C.R.I.T. (Constantly Running Into Trouble), Christopher brings cinematic action, sharp humor, and deep lore to the indie comics scene. Every panel is infused with the same passion that fueled his years on the road, now channeled into bold visuals, unpredictable storytelling, and a lived-in world shaped by real RPG sessions.

For Christopher, comics aren't just entertainment—they're escapism, adrenaline, and a portal to something bigger. If you love high-stakes action, character-driven chaos, and stories that make you feel like you're in the fight—you're in the right place.

C.R.I.T.

A high-octane blend of TMNT, Guardians of the Galaxy, and Police Academy—but with more bullets, more attitude, and a team that's always in over their heads! A group of friends turned unlikely heroes, C.R.I.T. isn't your average hero squad. They're a team of powered misfits trying to do the right thing—if they don't blow up half the city in the process.

When a routine job at a tech facility goes sideways, they gain powers that make them dangerous, unpredictable, and very, very valuable. Now they protect New Orleans, and learn that power comes at a price, and heroism isn't as simple as wearing a cape.

A Hero Team That's a Total Disaster – Forget polished superheroes. This is a team that fumbles, brawls, and learns on the fly. Action-Packed, High-Stakes Adventure. Explosions, high-tech battles, and supervillains with mysterious agendas.
